Internet sites with housing information specific to older adults
www.aarp.org/families	The AARP site (formerly known as American Association of Retired Persons) has valuable information for adults over 50 years old. The “family” page specifically offers housing information in the following areas: home design, housing choices, Elder Cottage Housing Opportunities (ECHO), and reverse mortgages.
www.coaaa.org	Central Ohio Area Agency on Aging – Housing search and other very good information for older adults; including group homes, assisted living, retirement communities, residential care facilities, and more. This site also provides information about the Residential State Supplement ( R.S.S. ) program; a state-funded cash assistance program for Medicaid-eligible aged, blind, or disabled adults who are determined to be at risk of needing institutional care. It provides a cash supplement to a person's income to help pay the costs of a community based living arrangement. GREAT site!
www.socil.org or call 740-689-1494	Southeastern Ohio for Independent Living (SOCIL) offers opportunities to consumers with disabilities that will maximize their choices to live in accessible communities. They are dedicated to eliminating all barriers to access in the community, including housing, employment, transportation and recreation.
www.Ohio.gov/living	This site provides information that will assist clients in problem solving with issues related to housing; including information about HEAP, Home Weatherization Assistance, shelter & supportive services, home repair for Ohioans, and MUCH more!
www.socialsecurity.gov	For many people, their housing situation is dependent on receiving Social Security benefits. SS helps not only older Americans, but also workers who become disabled, families in which a spouse or parent dies, and people who are blind or adults disabled since childhood. This site answers questions and directs individuals through the application process.
www.homeloans.va.gov	Veterans Administration. Explains veterans' health benefits, services, home loan program info, and other information to assist the veteran maintain stable housing. May apply on-line for some benefits.
www.facfc.org	This site was created to facilitate a coordinated system of services that will respond to the strengths and needs of Fairfield County , including many issues related to housing needs and questions. The site is sponsored by Fairfield County Family and Children First Council (FACFC) and offers Fairfield Co. residents terrific information.
www.fairfieldmha.org or call 740-653-6618	This site provides information about the many services and programs offered by the Fairfield Metropolitan Housing Authority. FMHA is dedicated to serving low-income families and individuals in Fairfield Co. to help them obtain affordable housing.
www.OhioHousingLocator.org	A web-based interactive database that will provide searchable information on affordable, accessible rental housing throughout the state, as well as links to other housing options and resources. The Ohio Housing Locator is a joint venture between the Ohio Housing Finance Agency, the Department of Aging, the Department of Job and Family Services, the Developmental Disabilities Council, and the Department of Development.
www.AlternaCareHomeHealth.com	At this website a resource guide may be accessed and printed that is specific to the needs of the senior citizens of Fairfield Co. Along with housing information this guide also includes references, with locations and phone numbers, for a multitude of services that will help the older adults live independently or in the most appropriate housing for their situation.
